Scotiabank Congratulates Organizers and Winners of Cayman Island Marathon

Scotiabank has formally signaled its heartiest congratulations to the organisers and winners of the 2013 Cayman Island Marathon. The Marathon which is being staged for the 11th year was a tremendous success with over 1300 runners from across the globe participating in the 26.2 mile journey. Scotiabank presented prizes to winners of the half marathon Dominic Corbin, the top male in the 13.1 leg journey and Gabrielle Grunewald the top female in the half marathon. The gifts were presented by Mr. Mahes Nagendram, Director of Treasury following the end of the race on Sunday, December 1st on Cardinal Avenue. Corbin who lives in the Cayman won the half marathon in 1 hour 21 minutes and 6 seconds while his female counterpart Gabrielle from Minnesota in the United States was 6 seconds behind as she clocked 1 hour 21minutes and 12 seconds.

Speaking about the Bank's sponsorship of the race, marketing manager for Scotiabank and Trust Cayman, Simone Hull Lloyd said the "the Bank was extremely proud to be associated with this high quality event which continues to draw local and international acclaim. We applaud the organizers on a very successful staging as it delivered well beyond our expectations and was thoroughly enjoyed by all the participants."

Mrs. Hull Lloyd went on to congratulate the winners Dominic and Gabrielle on the discipline, strength and commitment they demonstrated. "Scotiabank is delighted to be counted among the supporters of this marathon which gives runners an ideal outlet to do what they love...running. We were happy to share the stage with these winners and to be able to reward them with a token.

Scotiabank and Trust Cayman is a strong supporter of several local sporting events including youth baseball, football, tennis and various watersports.
